November 2004

November News:

I hope everyone that attended the Fall Banquet had a good time. I'd like to say a big THANK YOU to Sue Huston and everyone else that pitched in to help with setting up the banquet. We had a good turnout and if you couldn't attend you missed out on a good time and some great door prizes. (See the list later in this Newsletter). The Winter Park trip is filling fast so if you didn't sign up yet you better hurry. The response to running our own "big" trip has been great and shows that we need to continue to offer more skiing options to our members.

If you forgot to sign up for trips at the banquet or were undecided at the time, just send in your deposit now for any trips you would like to go on. Don't wait too long though. We booked these trips this past summer and we will have to start releasing rooms soon. Once we do there's no guarantee that we will be able to get them back. I'm told there was some confusion about signing up this year. The only trip that had a required sign up date was the Winter Park trip. All of the other Gelandesprung trips are open for signing up as soon as they are communicated out.

Welcome to all new members of the club! If you ever have any questions, please contact me or any other board member and we'll be glad to answer them.

Hey! One quick reminder! Don't forget the Packer/Halloween Party this Sunday, October 31st at Legends in Howard at 11:00 AM and then Zeller's Open House at 7:00 PM on Tuesday, November 2. (By the way: if you volunteered at the banquet to "model", be sure to stop in and see Ann at Zeller's prior to the Open House).

Happy Halloween, Tom VanderLinden

Packer/Halloween Party

Sunday, October 31st - 11:00 AM

at

Legends in Howard

Hosts: Kelly and Tom VanderLinden

You can:

- come as you are,
- come dressed in your Packer colors,
- wear a Halloween costume or
- some combination of all of these

It's an away game against Washington, so I would advise that you don't come dressed, well, as a Washington Fan; or a politician!

Fall Banquet Highlights

On Friday, October 8th, we got together for the annual fall banquet. Rick Huston supplied us with pre-banquet excitement by helping a fellow Ashwaubenon officer tackle and handcuff an individual in the lobby of the Ramada.

Then it was a time for us to get together and talk about past ski trips and plan future ones. The upcoming Winter Park trip seemed to be a popular topic. Thanks to Don Steffens for organizing the memories captured on pictures, and Brian for providing the projector. Watching the slides conjured up great memories and made everyone anxious for snow and the start of the new ski season.

The buffet was well received and the dessert table was a hit. After a nice meal, Tom talked about the trips for the 2004-2005 season and drew names for the door prizes.

Thanks go out to Sue Huston, Brian Fowle and Dick Wortiska for getting the door prizes. And an even bigger "Thank You" to all the businesses who contributed the door prizes.

And The Door Prize Winners Are...

Gelandesprung

Gelandesprung is a noun describing "a jump in skiing made from a crouching position with the use of both poles". Also, it is supposedly pronounced "gə-lən-də-shprōōng" but anyway you say it, it's a great ski club!

Winter Park Trip Update

Dick and I will try to keep those of you on the Winter Park trip up to speed on the trip as we get closer to the departure date. We will be sending out an informational letter next month with more info to follow and the rooming list in late January or early February.

This year Winter Ski & Sports is offering Travel Insurance for their trips. If you are interested in purchasing this insurance, just send it in with your payment. The cost of travel insurance for the Winter Park trip is $40. Contact Brian Fowle or me for the details on what is covered.

Tom VanderLinden

Note:

Gelandesprung's General Membership meetings are held at the RAMADAPLAZA HOTEL, 2750 Ramada Way. The Gelandesprung ("Bus") Ski trips depart from the same location.
