“36 years and still going downhill.”

October 2005

Hello everyone,

Another month has come and gone, getting us that much closer to ski season. People are starting to sign up for trips already, as a matter of fact only a few spots remain on the Italy trip. If you are thinking about a trip, now is the time to do something about it, or you might be out of luck.

The big event for the month is the fall banquet on October 14 at the SC Grand. Be sure to fill out the form and get it in the mail in plenty of time. They want a total number at least one week before the dinner so they know how much food to prepare. It will be a fun event and it is open to non-members as well, so they can get an idea of what the club is about, and hopefully become members.

One of the important things we will be talking about at the banquet is the incorporation of the club and the new by-laws. This is important to the future operations of the club, and is an opportunity for you to express your thoughts on how things should be done. If you are unable to attend the banquet, but have some ideas, contact a board member, so your ideas are known.

The ski trips have been all put together for the coming season and everything looks great, except one little item, we do not have trip leaders for the Marquette Spring Carnival weekend. Being a trip leader is fun and a good way to see how the club functions, not to mention a discount on the trip price. If you are at all interested, contact a board member with any questions you have. We will be glad to explain things to you so that you are comfortable enough to volunteer. The board members go on a lot of the trips as well, so you will have assistance should a question arise on the trip.

Be sure to check out all of the newsletter, there is a lot of information this month about future events and don't forget the advertisers that use our newsletter. Make an extra copy of the newsletter and show it to your friends, maybe they will be interested to join the club. We are always interested in new members and all are welcome to join. You do not have to be a good skier, you just have to enjoy a good time, to be in the club.

This is enough for this month, enjoy the beautiful fall weather, think of the snow just a few month away, and I look forward to talking to you at the banquet.

Dick

GELANDEBUCKS

Does the club still offer these? Is it still $10 per new member? Can I use it towards my favorite hobby, Skiing? The answer to all these questions is YES! If you recruit someone new to join the club you will receive a $10 credit for each person that signs up! That $10 can be put towards any ski trip, banquet or other club function as you see fit. So get out there, get recruiting and sign up some new members!

Gelandesprung

Gelandesprung is a noun describing "a jump in skiing made from a crouching position with the use of both poles". Also, it is supposedly pronounced "gə-lĕn-də-shprōng" but anyway you say it, it's a great ski club!

FALL CLASSIC GOLF OUTING September 24, 2005

The golf gods again were smiling down upon us. It started out partly sunny and about 70 degrees. It was cloudy with a few peaks of sun every now and then.

There were 25 players and 27 for dinner and socializing after golfing. The scores ranged from 65 to 87. The winning team of Bill and Peg Wanie, Mike and Sue Whitmer won with a 65.

Irish Waters was in excellent shape. Sam Fontaine had the shot of the day. On #12 (Island Par 3), he played follow the bouncing ball. His tee shot hit the golf path, bounced up about 20', hit the bridge to get to the green, bounced another 20', hit the road and ended up into a farmers field.

I want to thank every one who played or came to dinner. The summer is now officially done. It's now time to turn our thoughts from Green to White. Just a reminder the Fall Banquet is coming up in October and Zellers Open House is in November.

Have a good rest of Autumn .

Europe Trip 2006

People have been asking about the next European ski trip, and on the following page you'll see the sign-up form for next year's destination, Selva Val Gardena in Italy.

Selva is in the Dolomite region of northeastern Italy, and some old-timers might remember we were in the neighborhood in 1998. That year we were in Canazei, which is the next valley south (or counterclockwise on the Sella Ronda circuit) from Selva. It is interconnected to about 200 ski lifts in the Dolomiti Super Ski area where your lift pass covers up to 450 lifts in the region. Selva has a very Austrian character, as until 1919, it was part of the Tyrol region of Austria, and German is spoken by many of the locals. In fact, it's alternate name is Wolkenstein. The scenery is spectacular, high limestone cliffs tower above mostly gentle ski runs which fan out in all directions. It is the home of the Sella Ronda circuit, which takes you through all four valleys radiating out from the Sella Massif, bringing you back where you started 28 miles later.

We will be staying at the 4-star Hotel Oswald in the center of town, walking distance to the lifts, or take the free ski shuttle if you don't feel like walking. As usual for a European trip, both breakfast and dinner are included. Breakfast is buffet style with coffee, tea, juices, bread, cheese, cold cuts, cereal and yogurt. Dinners will be multi-course gourmet meals with a combination of Italian and Tyrolean specialties.

As in past years, we will bus from Appleton to Chicago O'Hare and fly nonstop to Milan, Italy. A charter bus will then take us to Selva, about 5 hours away.

Our side trip will be a 3-day stopover in Rome after leaving Selva. We have a 3-star hotel in the heart of Rome. We will fly there from Venice airport and then return back to Chicago via Milan. In Rome, only breakfast is included with the package.

You may have experienced a bit of "sticker shock" when you saw the price. Europe is quite a bit more expensive than in past years with the weakening of the US Dollar versus the Euro. Still, I think it is a good value considering the quality of the accommodations, extent of the skiing, and grandeur of the surrounding Dolomite Mountains. As we are running a 4-day Jackson Hole trip at the same time, you'll still have some opportunity to ski if this one doesn't fit your budget or time availability.

Space on the Europe Trip 2006 is limited. We only have 44 confirmed slots; so if you want to go, send your sign-up form and a check ASAP after the August 15 trip opening date.
