“37 years and still going downhill.”

September 2006

Hello everyone,

Another month has come and gone and it is again time for the latest news from the Gelandesprung Ski Club. The board has been working on the final touches for all of the weekend trips and we will have the information ready for the fall banquet and you can start signing up. An early sign-up is appreciated so it makes planning the trips easier for the trip leaders, and also there are cancellation dates for the hotel rooms. When people wait until the last minute to join a trip, it becomes a big job to make all of the contacts to make it work out.

The Whistler trip is looking very good, having received a large sign-up as soon as the trip opened up. The big news on Whistler is that in the last couple weeks, word has been going out that a passport will be needed for the crossing at the boarder. The plan is to move the effective date up to January 8, 2007 for all people traveling by air or water, that is us. So, if you do not have a passport, you have time to get one, but do not delay because it usually takes a couple of months to complete the process. If you do have a passport, now is the time to check the expiration date so that you are good until Feb. 3, 2007. I know that on the flyer it says passports are not needed, but our government changes things and we have no control of this and I apologize for any problems this may cause.

The fall banquet is set for October 13 at the SC Grand. Every year this is a fun event and I am looking forward to it again. Be sure to get the sign-up form in and be a part of the fun. Also, this is a good time to bring along some friends who might be interested in joining the ski club. This is a good way for them to see what the club is about, and also a good chance to sign up for trips. A lot of the time new members wait to long to join and after they do, they find out that a trip they wanted to sign-up for is full.

Since summer officially lasts until September 21, there are still some summer things to do. You have the opportunity to join two golf outings this month. Check the rest of the newsletter for all of the details and you can have a great time with your ski friends.

It is time to say good-bye for another month. Enjoy what is left of our summer.

Wine Tasting Event Highlights

What a great turnout we had for the wine tasting event held at Wine Premier on August 9th. Thirteen club members competed at Bingo, had lots of fun and good conversation, and got to try six different wines. We sampled three white and three red wines, and played a little Bingo and sampled a few snacks in between each different glass.

Even though we were a group of thirteen, our club's good luck held out. We had three prize winners: Ron Quick and Paul Pendowski won at Bingo and Mike Schilling won a door prize.

A funny incident happened but no obtuse award could be given out as the mistake was made by the owner of the shop. As we arrived at the Wine Premier and checked in we were asked, “Are you with the German Club?” and for the early part of the evening the staff kept referring to our table as “the German Club.” Apparently Gelandesprung was too difficult a name for the staff to deal with so they just registered everyone who called as a member of the German Club. The Wine Premier owner was disappointed to find out that we were a non-German speaking ski club as she had gone to some trouble to come up with a few German vocabulary words with which to impress us.

After the wine tasting was over, most of our group headed next door to Arthur's restaurant for a little more socialization. Everyone agreed that we should do this again, so look for more wine tasting events in the future. Thanks to everyone who attended and made it such a special evening, and thanks to Wine Meister Mary Blankenheim for her assistance in organizing the event.

Geländesprung

Geländesprung is a noun describing "a jump in skiing made from a crouching position with the use of both poles". Also, it is supposedly pronounced "gə-lĕn-də-shpröŋg" but anyway you say it, it's a great ski club!
