“37 years and still going downhill.”

April 2007

Hello for the month of April,

Our ski year has almost been completed. We just returned from the Marquette Mountain LaBatt's weekend. You would never have guessed the skiing would be so good. Spring skiing is always so much fun, you have to get out and enjoy it. This was the final trip of the year for the club, and I am very happy with how they all went. Now I am waiting to see what our trips for next year will be. I am sure that there will be some great destinations and unlimited fun, so it will be a good excuse to renew your membership next year and join in all the festivities.

With the completion of the ski trips for the season, the only thing left for the year is the spring banquet on April 13. Be sure to send in your money and be part of the end of a great year. The sign up form can be found in this newsletter. There will be plenty to eat and drink as well as pictures and stories of all the trips of the past year, and don't forget to bring along your nominations for the obtuse of the year, because it is time to pass along the traveling trophy. The last item of business to be taken care of at the banquet is the election of officers. We will be electing two positions, president and secretary, so this is the time to step up and have a say in how the future of your club will be handled. So, once again I say, send in your money right away so you don't forget.

I regret to say that I have been informed by Penny Holman, our newsletter editor, that she will be retiring from her position. She has been doing this service for the club for many years and has made the newsletter an item that we all can be proud of. Thank you Penny! The search is now on for a replacement and with all the talented people in our club, I am sure that we will find someone to carry on. If you have an interest in doing this, I am sure that if you contact Penny, she will be glad to tell you what is involved with the position.

Now that we have finished skiing for the year, that must mean summer is right around the corner, and so we will need some summer activities to allow us to get together and see how our ski friends are getting along. Kevin Klasen is putting together two golfing outings and some other people have talked about other events. We will be talking about this at the banquet as well. If you have an idea for something that you would be interested in hosting, contact a board member. Be sure to check the newsletter each month as this is the best way to keep informed as to what is going on.

Well, this will have to do for this month. Remember the spring banquet and sign up right away. Take care and I will see you soon.

Dick

BOYNE HIGHLANDS / NUBS NOB

Our Friday evening bus ride was smooth sailing with music, movies, beer, wine and Linchburg Lemonades. We arrived at Boyne Highlands to find excellent accommodations and a friendly helpful staff. The rooms were elegant and spacious. We had time to catch a couple of cocktails at the Slopeside Bar where a band was playing and people were dancing.

Saturday morning brought a fabulous breakfast buffet with all the fixings. Omelets were made to your liking as you watched. The buffet was full of fresh fruit, pastry, eggs of all kinds, pancakes and pretty much anything you could want to eat before a hard day of skiing.

Saturday was a picture perfect ski day with sunny skies and little wind. The hill was busy but lift lines were quick. The snow was good and well groomed. Boyne Highlands spreads out nicely offering many options throughout the day. It was easy to keep moving and stay interested in the hill. Apres ski was at the Zoo Bar which was rockin'. A very good band had everyone was up dancing and moving. The place was packed as several other ski clubs from around the Midwest were also here on this weekend. Goofy hats seemed to be the theme for most of them. Those that wanted a more relaxing end to their day sat in the hot tub and swam in the heated outdoor pool.

The evening meal was a choice of a pasta buffet or a menu items from the restraunt. Both were gourmet dinning and excellent. Everyone must have had a hard day for only a few made it to the Slopeside that night for music and cocktails.

The next morning after enjoying the great buffet again we loaded up and headed across the way to Nubs Nob. This day was much different with overcast skies and extremely windy. We were fortunate to be skiing this hill this day as there was a side of the hill that was out of the wind. Most of the group ended up skiing there most of the day. Those that braved the windy side of the hill did not stay there long. The weather was getting bad with snow falling and high winds so we packed up a little early to head home.

The trip home was a little longer than on the way up as roads were snow covered and drifting. Our bus driver did an excellent job to make it an uneventful trip. Maxine Hafeman won the Obtuse award for some how failing to get off of the chair at the top at the hill. Tough competition was provided by Jeanne Stilp who had multiple nominations by her husband. I hope your couch is comfortable Scott!

The accommodations at Boyne Highlands are by far the best we have had on a Midwest ski weekend trip and exceed a lot of the out west facilities. The staff at Boyne Highlands were extremely helpful and nice. This resort gets it when it comes to customer service. Sign up early next year as this trip will fill up fast!
