February 2010

Hello from the Top of the Mountain!

Yes, I am getting ready to leave for Taos, NM - should be a great trip, I am sure! So this will be short.

For those of you who don't know why we had to cancel the Searchmont trip, the reason was that they, and the entire canyon, had a power outage. The Board made the difficult decision after many calls and e-mails to the hill. Thanks to Brian Fowle and Mike Bast for the work they put into this trip, and special thanks to Brian for dealing with the hill and motel the last couple of days before our canceling it. Although this trip showed a lot of interest by our membership, the Club will not re-schedule it this year, but it will be on next year's trip list for sure!

Thanks to everyone for understanding - it was not an easy thing to cancel. With the cancellation, many made alternate plans - some went to Brule and many went to Indianhead and had a great time; some went to Marquette and had some of that fun too (even duck-hunting, yes duck-hunting - bet you never duck-hunted on skis before - I did - I'll have to tell you the story).

The trips are winding-down fast, with the only openings being on the Marquette Spring Carnival trip in March. This is always a great trip - good snow, good food, and good fun - get signed-up! Also, check with Sly Fox for their Marquette trip in February at www.SlyFoxClub.org.

The Board is already working on the trips for next year. We have a great wish-list - some new, some old - should be great, no matter what!

Thanks again to everyone for going on this year's trips. Don't forget, if you have ideas on things, please let me know - it's your Club! Hope there is some of that fun going on. Be on the look out for new Gelande-Gear coming soon - some neat stuff! The next general meeting is 7:00 pm, February 23, at the Sports Corner - see ya there!

Well, I've got to go pack some socks or something. Taos, here we come!

Carl Williquette

Marquette Mountain Ski Trip Summary

The Club completed its first trip of the season - to Marquette Mountain for one day, on January 2, 2010. We left shortly after 6 am on Saturday morning with 44 skiers aboard, including eleven new and two returning members, and one more meeting us at the mountain. Cold, brisk winds and snow showers greeted us at the hill, and continued through the day, with near white-out conditions at times, but also with a few breaks. There was a decent covering of mainly-natural snow on most trails, with a couple of trails just a day or so away from being opened.

On our way to Marquette, we ate breakfast then watched a Warren-Miller ski-video to psyche ourselves up for skiing. Finally, we arrived at the mountain between 10:30 am and 11 am (Michigan Time), and had some time to get loose for the free NASTAR competition at 12 pm, and plenty of opportunity to get hungry for our 1 pm-lunch at the Alpine Room, located at the west end of the main lodge – this kept us warm and dry, with access to bathrooms! For lunch, we had our traditional brats, hot dogs, chips and cheese and crackers, with plenty of beer, wine and soda.

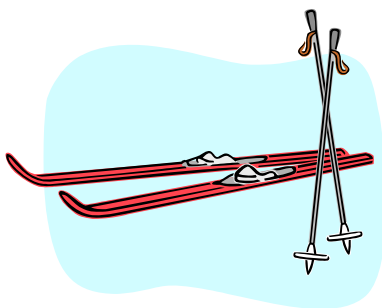

We had what was likely a Club record 24 sign-ups for a single NASTAR race event! The best overall time was set by Dave Van Gemert, at 27.67 seconds. The following won medals: Gold – Bill Smith; Silver – Carl Williquette, Paul Hendricks, Dave Van Gemert; Bronze – Veronica Reash, Senny Wegner, Miles O’Hanlon, Sheryl Brunette, Frank Wickam, Mike Bast, Mike Blodgett, Scott Stilp, Tom Herber. Congratulations to those who medaled, and thanks to all who represented our Club on the hill!

On our way home, we held Obtuse Award nominations. Though they were slow to be made, there were several. John Wouters was nominated by Dan Goudreau for trying to give away Dan’s helmet and hot chocolate, in order for Dan to sit with him during our lunch. Vicky Voght was nominated by Mike Bast for telling people to go to the wrong place for lunch, i.e., Border Shack, after the trip leader had repeatedly emphasized the change to the warmer Alpine Room at the Base Lodge. In like kind, Vicky then nominated Mike for allowing his “tightie whites” to show while he was skiing. Gary Heilmann was nominated by Gary Wisneski for placing his ski belongings on the wrong bus, after skiing, likely in a deliberate attempt to create more space on the bus for the return trip home, by luring others to do so as well. The trip leader was nominated by Dee Austin for exhibiting problems identifying clock times through the trip. Well, it was nearly unanimous that Gary Heilmann won the award – a tray of Christmas cookies – pretty mild!

We watched the comedy, “Hangover,” on the ride back, with a brief dinner break in Escanaba. Thanks to Adam Hanson for obtaining several videos from which we could select.

The trip was a fun “kick-off” to the ski season. Thanks to everyone who helped out!

Gary Austin & Dan Goudreau
