May 2011

To the Membership,

If Brett Favre can do it so can I. I have resigned as president of the Gelandesprung Ski Club. For those of you that were at the banquet or not, I had just taken on a third term, I have re-thought that. This will be a great thing for the club. It was done with the by-laws of the club. Ron Quick will be taking over. He will do a great job I am sure. I will remain on the board as past president, I am going nowhere, other than up the hill, down the hill. I think that's the main idea anyway. I would like to thank all of you for your support in me to have been president of your club. It was a great ride, thanks again. If anyone has questions as to this feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,
Past president.
Carl Williquette

P.S. No I am not going to play for the Minnesota Vikings!

Marquette Spring Carnival

LASTING THEME OF THE TRIP: Go Big Or Go Home - by Terry Degeneffe(Applied to activities, beverages, general condition of trip)

March 18-20, 2011

As they say, “timing is everything”! There begins our story of the weekend. Bus loads at 4p, leaves at 4:30p was the call Jim put out to everyone, BUT Vicki (old # on triplist) . . .the website said 5. . .She was arrived at Life Church promptly at 5p, jello shots in hand!!! It was Friday night, and the weekend started.

Friday events included a “gift bag” for Mike Bast, 1st on the bus prize to Mary Lou Kuske, trivia questions with prizes and the Giant Slalom $$$ to Dee Thieme ($31.00). Post the Escanaba fast food stop, we ran a 2nd Grand Slalom and Jack won (Bus Driver)!!!(spent all his winnings buying shots for the ladies on Saturday night). We arrived safely at the Comfort Suite in Marquette, only after a tour of Downtown Marquette because Jack’s GPS told him the hotel was near the Ramada Inn!

Saturday was a perfect ski day, except for the groups inability to accept we had again lost another hour of time when we enter Eastern Daylight Time. The prior Sunday, we went into Daylight savings time, Friday night we crossed into Eastern Daylight Savings time, losing another hour. OUCH! Kay Webb overslept so took a cab to the hill and Krystal and Phil ran a “little” late, even though they were up at 7a, “my how time flies.” Cindy Rendell, acutely aware of the time zone, boarded the bus first and received a prize. Trivia questions about the area , poorly told jokes and Warren Miller’s Blunders and Bloopers, brought us to the hill.

Sunny skies, great grooming and a not overcrowded the hill made for a perfect ski day. The Nastar prizes went to several members of the group, with Senny winning a prize for the “longest” run - the timing clock wasn’t working!

The Milwaukee Brewer Chorizo Sausage made an appearance at our Lunch at the Boarder Shack. An Apres Ski Party was held at the hotel where we had a special guest -Ann Zellar and her husband. What a treat, since the Zellars have been honorary members of Gelandesprung since the beginning. Ann shared family stories about how her Mother picked up all the kids and brought them skiing, and her Dad made her Mother walk to St. Vincents to deliver David, since he said it would take him longer to get the car out!!! It was a special experience.

Post Apres Ski, the group went to eat at either Casa Calabria or Lagniappe. Both were perfect choices. After dinner the group met at Hudsons to cheer Wisconsin onto a Win!

Sunday, a totally different weather story. We got on the bus and Krystal Morgan was overheard saying "what the #@^*is this! Pellets of snow/slush were falling from the sky. On the way to the hill it was raining, Boo - Hiss! A vote was taken, if it was miserable after the Pig Roast, we would leave. Mike Bast, being the planner and entrepreneur that he is, modeled the lovely "Gelandesprung butt cover." Sales were brisk, after his catwalk up and down the bus aisle. Kind of like QVC on wheels!!

Well, it stopped raining, conditions were variable (to say the least), the "vegetable oil" was raining down off the chairlift, but the Pig Roast was delicious and 2nd helpings were offered to all, the Brewer Sausages road the chairlift and participated in the Firehose Race - what a site, the Slush Cup was a hoot with 3 participants crossing the H2O, the Raffle produced prizes for Mary Lou Kuske-a beautiful jacket, Paul Hendricks - goggles, and Phil Winter - boot warmers. The skiers went to what appeared to be a 4y.o.!!

There only 3 nominations(prompted by Mary Lou) for the Obtuse Award (we were all so well behaved!). Kay Webb won the Obtuse Award - $10 Gelandesbucks for her taxi ride to the hill and Phil and Krystal won 2nd prize (a Bellin blanket) for their delayed (for whatever reason) arrival on the bus Saturday.

Jim and I want to thank everyone for their help on this trip. It made our Trip Leader duties easy. Makes you proud of being a member of Gelandesprung/Sly Fox.

So. . .Go Big or Go Home! See you on the Slopes or Golf course. If you're around the Crivitz area, you have Jim's cell # ,stop by and we'll tell you another joke!. . .Hope you had fun, we sure did!!

Thank you.
